About the MEDICI

The MEDICI Gallery and Coffee House has been a fixture of HYDE PARK since 1955. In the beginning, we just sold ART and coffee from a tiny shop in back of the Green Door Bookstore. Eventually, we added pizza and hamburgers and have been growing ever since.

Over the years, we've meant a lot of things to many people. We've been a HIPPIE HAVEN, a student hang-out and a LATE-NIGHT URBAN OASIS for generations of South-Siders.

The MEDICI Bakery, University Market, The Pub (in the basement of Ida Noyes) and most recently, the MEDICI in NORMAL, are all part of the Medici family.

WE accept VISA, Mastercard and CASH. There is a $2 minimum per person. An 18% gratuity will be added to parties of FIVE or more. Visit our bakery just EAST of the restaurant on your way out.

Thanks for CHOOSING the MEDICI!

During the Sixties, the MEDICI was a hotbed of anti-war activity (the CONSPIRACY SEVEN hung out here), which made our restaurant unpopular among more conservative neighbors.

We've changed a lot over the years, but a DEVOTED STAFF and a commitment to GOOD FOOD and service remains the same. Everything we serve is made from scratch, by people who care. We are proud to be locally owned, environmentally FRIENDLY and socially responsible. 🌿
